

List of Mediums for the 2020 Spirit Fest - November 19, 2022

Rev. Marrice Coverson has been for over 30-year a Spiritual Reader, Consultant, Instructor and Lecturer. She is the first female African American pastor of Church of the Spirit, the oldest Spiritualist Church in Illinois. She works with clients, guides, loved ones and friends in the spirit world. Most recently, she is now certified as a life coach to further support the visions and lives of her clients from various backgrounds all across the country. Find reach at: www.inspirational-institute.com, spirtspks@aol.com Twitter @Marrice Coverson

Cher Dyle An Assistant Pastor at Church of the Spirit developed her mediumship skills as a member of the Church. She was so inspire by the first reading she received from Rev. Marrice that she wanted to study and help others in the same way. That was 28 years ago. As a talented medium, she gives platform messages during Sunday services and also offers private readings. Cher is an excellent teacher. She offers many development classes at the church and will begin offering on-line classes as well this fall. You can learn more about her. You can reach her at: <http://www.spiritsgreetings.com/>

Elizabeth Cichocki (pronounced Cha-hut-ski) is like the sleeping medium. She was born with abilities but did not fully develop them until attending the Church of the Spirit and their classes. Has experience with Reiki, Barbara Brennen Healing, Breathwork, and currently a Clairvoyant Healing Energy practitioner. Elizabeth is available for readings and energy healings at Dsj54mnj@yahoo.com.

Mahala D. Bacon, Th D., Mahala is a graduate of Williams College, and known as a Master Intuitive, an adept in mystic tradition. As a teacher and counselor, Mahala is involved in mystical studies and teaches the scientific and subjective theories that involve these studies. Her field of expertise is n Sacred Sciences and Spiritual Energetic. She is a medium for the paranormal group “SNAPIT” (Supernatural and Paranormal Investigation Team) based in Chicago.

Lilian Suarez: A Certified Medium, Spiritual Adviser, Consultant, Instructor and Lecturer. She allows her soul to be the vessel for your loved ones on the other side. In her thirties, she encountered health issues, one of them being her kidneys, which required major surgery and while she was fighting for her life, she called on God and made a deal with him. “If you get me through this, I promise I’ll learn about my gift”. She made a full recovery and keeping her promise to God she began not only to learn but to put her gifts in service to others. She became a Reiki Master and started healing herself and others. She has an online Facebook community named Mediumship Development Group which creates a safe space for mediums to practice their skills, as well as receive free training tips and interact with other members of the group. She is actually working with the Internationally Renowned Spiritual Psychic Mediums Tony Stockwell and Mavis Pitilla. You can contact her at Lilian Medium (@lillianmedium).

List of Mediums for the 2020 Spirit Fest - November 19, 2022

April Gary is an oracle, clairvoyant, clairaudient and medium. Initiated and well-studied in a variety of spiritual cultures including Yoruba, Ifa, Vodoun, Christianity, Buddhism and such, April teaches the cross cultural spiritual aspects of world spirituality. Her readings include cloud readings, fire readings, earth, and water gazing. She uses water gazing to see and communicate with the deceased. Born with the gifts of knowing, she has been actively performing, learning, sharing for over 21 years. Her work includes spiritual remedies, Reiki, counseling, initiation and oracle training. Reach her at: aprilgary9@yahoo.com.

Rev. Donna Fischer as the co-founder of the United Spiritual Council of Nations and designer of many programs offer insights and practical applications to all the behind the seen workings. She is an intuitive and continues to follow the footsteps of her uncle, Rev. Hilborn as she does her service work in the church and community. Her ministry is far reaching to those who have afflictions that many of us do not understand.

Janyce Hamilton, former agent for a private investigator, taps into the loving spirit energy presence around you, delivers their gentle compassionate message, senses your unique spiritual gifts, and guides you toward unfolding your abilities.

Audrey William, she attends the Church of the Spirit since 2015. She studied with assistant pastor, Cher Dyle and is in the advanced class with Rev. Marrice Coverson. As a published author, Audrey's articles, "A Call from Beyond and Heightened Awareness," as well as several poems have been published in The Nationalist Spiritualist Summit Magazine. She uses her gifts of clairvoyance and clairaudience to be a conduit for spirit communication. You can contact her at:

Audreywilliams40@gmail.com